

REPORTS OF MSSNOAU TO BE PRESENTED AT THE GENERAL MEETING SCHEDULED FOR THE 16TH OF DECEMBER, 2025.

PREAMBLE

All praises and adoration are due to Almighty Allah (SWT), who has granted us the opportunity, strength, and guidance to execute our programmes up to this point. We are immensely grateful for His endless blessings and the unwavering support of our members, alumni, staff advisers, and the entire Muslim community on campus. This report provides a summary of our executed and ongoing activities, as well as our plans for the remainder of the semester.

EXECUTED PROGRAMMES

1. Post-UTME Tutorial: The branch organised a successful Post-UTME tutorial for Muslim aspirants. The programme received positive feedback and yielded encouraging results, Alhamdulillah.
2. Reception of Moro Students: We warmly welcomed our brothers and sisters from Moro as they resumed for the new academic session, ensuring their smooth integration into campus life and the MSSN family.
3. Visitation, Al-Usrah, and Tutorials for Moro Students: Through the Office of the Moro Committee, visitations, tutorials, and Al-Usrah activities are ongoing smoothly at the Moro Campus.
4. Graphics Design Bootcamp: An ongoing capacity-building initiative aimed at equipping members with graphic design skills, fostering creativity and digital literacy.
5. Leadership Retreat (8th – 11th October): A retreat was held for newly appointed executives to equip them with essential leadership skills, spiritual grounding, and team-building strategies necessary for effective service towards the cause of Allah.

6. 40-Day Tawhid Campaign: A daily awareness campaign was conducted through educational graphics to deepen members' understanding of Islamic monotheism.
7. Freshmen Welcoming: Through the Orientation Committee, newly admitted students were warmly received upon their resumption to campus. Volunteers assisted them with carrying their luggage, printing documents, completing e-portal registration, and other necessary tasks to ease their transition into campus life.
8. Orientation Programme for Freshmen: A well-attended orientation was organised to properly integrate new Muslim students into campus life, focusing on religious consciousness, academic excellence, and balance.
9. Freshers' Meet-up with Executives: This interactive session allowed freshmen to formally meet the MSSN OAU leadership, fostering a sense of belonging and open communication.
10. Al-Qari' Contest: Our annual Quranic recitation competition was held to select the Qari and Qari'ah of MSSN OAU from among the freshmen. The event was highly successful and spiritually uplifting.
11. A Night with Alumni: This memorable event featured notable alumni including Idris Ayodeji Bello, Tunde Azeez, Muhammad Elegbede, and Taofik Abdulkareem. It was graced by Emeritus Professor Rahaman, staff advisers, and other distinguished lecturers. The venue, Awo Café, was filled to capacity, reflecting the strong bond between past and present members.
12. Visitation to Secondary Schools: Through our Secondary School Committee, we visited schools within our environs to enlighten students on religious and academic matters. Representatives were selected in each school, and a second round of visits is being planned.
13. Academic Talk: A programme was held where Dr. S.A. Adio educated students on the dangers and negative impacts of modern technology on academic performance.

- 14.Inter-Faculty Quiz Competition: A quiz competition was organised to promote academic excellence and healthy intellectual rivalry among members across faculties.
- 15.40-Day Adab Campaign: An ongoing daily campaign promoting Islamic etiquette (Adab) through graphic reminders shared across our platforms.
- 16.Al-Fatiha: The business unit of MSSNOAU has successfully concluded the freshers' sales whereby goods needed by freshmen were sold at a very affordable price. The enterprise has also commenced the sales of fresh and cheap pepper, and other products being sold by the enterprise.
- 17.Speaklogue: The An-nur committee, the editorial wing of MSSNOAU, successfully organised a virtual webinar that was geared towards developing the speaking and communication skills of our members.
- 18.Visitation to Hostels: Through the office of the Welfare, we have successfully organised a number of visitations to our members in various halls of residence.

RECURRING PROGRAMMES

The following programmes have been running smoothly:

- Al-Usrah
- Sisters' Circle
- Tutorial Sessions
- Modrasah
- Cleaning of the Central Mosque

PLANNED PROGRAMMES & UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

- Preparations for Ramadan

Plans are underway for a fruitful and engaging Ramadan period, including Taraweeh, lectures, and Iftar programmes.

- Muslimah Summit:

Plans are underway to organise the fourth edition of the muslimah summit, a programme that will be attended by sisters from OAU and other sister institutions.

- Attendance at the Upcoming IVC

Arrangements are being made for members to attend the forthcoming Islamic Vacation Course (IVC).

- Second Round of Secondary School Visitations

Continuation of our outreach to secondary schools.

CHALLENGES & OBSERVATIONS

While we have recorded many successes, we also acknowledge challenges such as financial constraints and the need for increased volunteer participation. We are committed to improving in these areas with your support, active participation, payment of annual dues, and prayers.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to:

- Our Staff Advisers and the Muslim Community.
- Our alumni for their continuous support.
- All members and executives for their dedication and hard work.
- Every Muslim student on campus for trusting and participating in our activities.

CONCLUSION

We beseech Allah (SWT) to accept our efforts, bless our activities, and grant us the strength, wisdom, and unity to continue serving His cause. May He make us a source of benefit to Islam and humanity. Ameen.
